BONA FIDE RETIREMENT

IPERS members who retire and receive benefits before age 70 must have a bona fide retirement before they may return to work.

A BONA FIDE RETIREMENT MEANS:

- You have submitted a retirement application and IPERS has approved it.
- You are receiving benefits.
- You have left employment with all IPERS-covered employers, including non-covered positions with covered employers.
- You have followed the time restrictions for providing services for an IPERS-covered employer (described below).

HOW BONA FIDE RETIREMENT WORKS

For example, you receive your FIRST BENEFIT as a new retiree in January:

- JANUARY
- The first of February (the first of the month after you receive your FIRST benefit), you can:
  - Enter into a written or verbal agreement to perform services as an employee, independent contractor or volunteer for an IPERS-covered employer.
  - Work in a non-IPERS-covered position with an IPERS-covered employer.

- FEBRUARY 1
- MARCH
- APRIL
- MAY 1
- The first of May (the month after you receive your FOURTH benefit), you can:
  - Serve as an independent contractor for your former IPERS-covered employer(s).
  - Work in covered employment for an IPERS-covered employer.

EXCEPTIONS

- Working for a covered employer after age 70
  - If you are older than age 70, you may receive IPERS benefits while working for an IPERS-covered employer. After you end employment with an IPERS-covered employer, contact IPERS and apply for a recomputation of benefits.

- Reaching age 72
  - If you are no longer working for an IPERS-covered employer, you must begin receiving IPERS benefits by April 1 the year after you turn age 72.

- Iowa National Guard members
  - You can be called to state duty during the Bona Fide Retirement period without any benefit penalty.

- Part-time elected officials
  - You may start receiving benefits while in office. When you intend to retire, please notify IPERS in writing of your intent to end all covered employment and end IPERS coverage for your elected position.
